Beach Haven Borough Hall Gallery Opens “Off Season Bliss” Fall Art Show

BEACH HAVEN, NJ – A colorful collection of nearly 50 paintings depicts the favorite time of year for shore residents – when visitors depart and we reclaim the area as our own.

The work displayed by Pine Shores Art Association painters is for sale. A take-home exhibit guide lists information to reach the artists who may be contacted directly to discuss a purchase. The gallery, located on the first floor of the municipal building at S. Bay and Engleside Avenues, is open during Borough Hall hours, Monday-Friday, 9am to 4pm (except on holidays).

Also this year, on Shop Local Day, the weekend after Thanksgiving, the public is invited to a meet-the-artists reception with additional artwork of all types and sizes offered in a holiday art fair held in Borough Hall Gallery on Saturday, November 26, from 10am – 3pm.

The theme painting for “Off Season Bliss” is “Young Couple in Love” by Paul Daukas. Two other sample paintings from the exhibit attached here are: “Seagull” by Nancy Willen, and “Barnegat Light Dunes” by Irene Bausmith.

For more Borough Hall information call 609-492-0111 or visit Beachhaven-nj.gov. For further art exhibit information or graphic image requests, please contact Suzi Hoffman at redcanoestudio@comcast.net or 240-462-8963.

Pine Shores Art Association has been an Ocean County cultural resource presenting year-round fine arts classes, gallery exhibits and community outreach programs for more than 40 years. Large print & other special assistance/accommodations are available if requested two weeks in advance. PSAA received funding this year from a grant administered by the Ocean County Cultural & Heritage Commission from funds granted by the NJ State Arts Council, a division of the Department of State. PSAA is also generously supported by the Ocean County Board of Chosen Freeholders, TD Bank, and the Boroughs/Townships of Beach Haven, Stafford, and Tuckerton.
