Note from Pine Shores President...

Hello again, my friends,

Donna Ransome, our newsletter chairwoman, came across this beautiful description of the four seasons and how we, as artists, might relate to them. She graciously offered the lines to me to share with you.

*Winter is an etching,
Spring a watercolor,
Summer an oil painting,
And autumn a mosaic of them all.*

~ Stanley Horowitz

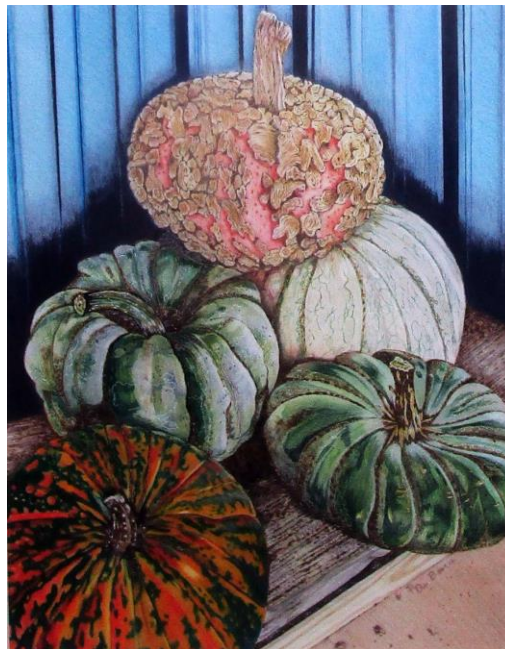

Although I've probably always thought of watercolors as light and airy, more conducive to paintings of Spring blossoms and beachy scenes, I can honestly say that I never thought of the seasons and our painting media in this metaphorical manner. Now I can't stop seeing the relationship.

Wish I knew how to do etchings! I think our education department has offered the occasional class, but I was fool enough not to take advantage of them!

Thanks, Donna.

Education: Cheers to a Year of Creativity and Connection!

As we prepare to step into the new year, let's take a moment to reflect on the incredible moments we've shared and the art we've created together. Each of you has played a crucial role in our community, and for that, we are truly grateful. Your unique voice and vision are what make this space truly special.

We would also like to welcome our new volunteers! Your willingness to lend a hand and share your talents is what makes our organization thrive. Thank you for stepping up to help us grow and connect with our wonderful art community!

We are thrilled to welcome wonderful new artists and teachers to our organization. Their diverse talents and experiences will greatly enrich our community. Please be on the lookout on our calendar for our special artists that will be teaching this year!

- Lisa Budd/Watercolor
- Ann Greene/Abstract
- Lyn Asselta/Pastels
- Rebecca Rhodes/Watercolors

Together, we've shared countless moments of inspiration, learned from one another, and celebrated our unique artistic journeys. Your contributions—whether through volunteering artwork, feedback, or support—have helped us grow and thrive. Thank you for being a part of this amazing experience.

Don't forget to share our mission with friends, family, and fellow creatives. Your support can amplify our efforts and invite even more individuals to join our vibrant community. Together, we can cultivate an environment where art thrives and inspires positive change.
